

PRIVACY NOTICE

NOTICE PURSUANT TO THE CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT (CCPA)

To reduce the risk of spreading the COVID-19 virus in and through the workplace and protect our employees and guests, Self-Help for the Elderly (SHE) implementing procedures for measuring the temperature of all individuals coming into SHE's facility and inquiring and observing whether any individual attempting to enter a SHE facility has any symptoms of COVID-19 or related illness. Any individual, whether an employee or visitor, whose temperature is measured to indicate a fever, who reports having or is observed to have any such symptoms, or who has recently been in contact with symptomatic individuals will not be permitted to enter any SHE facility.

Pursuant to the CCPA, we are notifying you that we are collecting the following category of Personal Information: Medical and health information, specifically your body temperature and whether you have or display certain symptoms such as fatigue, cough, sneezing, aches and pains, runny or stuffy nose, sore throat, diarrhea, headaches, or shortness of breath, whether you have recently been in close contact with anyone who has exhibited any of these symptoms, whether you have recently been in contact with anyone who has tested positive for COVID-19, and whether you have recently traveled to a restricted area that is under a Level 2, 3, or 4 Travel Advisory according to the U.S. State Department (including China, Italy, Iran, and most of Europe).

Self-Help for the Elderly will maintain this information under conditions of confidentiality. We are collecting this information for purposes of reducing the risk of spreading the COVID-19 virus in and through the workplace and protecting our employees and guests.
