This is Self-Help for the Elderly’s first ever Virtual Gala in fifty four years of servicing seniors in San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara and Alameda counties. Welcome and thank you for attending and in celebrating Self-Help’s HOPE 2020 Virtual Gala!

Yes, the years 2020 and 2021 will go down in history as the COVID-19 pandemic years and its impact around the world. The most vulnerable group impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic is the elderly and seniors due to their existing medical conditions, isolation, and frailty. Low income and fixed income seniors were hit the hardest with the pandemic. Self-Help’s staff and volunteers “stepped up” to meet the challenges of this pandemic to ensure existing and new clients continued to receive the services and care offered by Self-Help to maintain their independence, dignity and self-worth.

During the height of the pandemic from March when shelter-in-place was mandated until the end of June, Self-Help was able to deliver 300,000 emergency meals to homebound seniors by our Nutrition Department. Our Home Health Care, Hospice and Adult Day services remained open and clinicians were trained per the CDC guidelines and continued to make patient and/or telephone visits to ensure the safety and health of our seniors. Two affordable housing units for low income seniors, Lady Shaw with 75 residents and Autumn Glow with 15 residents continued operation and management to provide high quality daily 24-hours of assisted living managed by our Housing Services unit. To address social isolation and other needs of our seniors during COVID-19, video conferencing and wellness calls were provided by our Social Services unit. Under COVID-19 guidelines, our Employment Training and Economic Development unit and our Health Insurance Counseling Programs in San Francisco and San Mateo counties made modifications to its training and counseling programs with the use of virtual tools (Zoom) and telephone and video conferencing calls. I am pleased to report that the well-being of our seniors is being cared for and with the utmost safety and compliance under the CDC’s recommended COVID-19 guidelines during the pandemic and we will continue to do so.

The above successful programs and services are due mainly to Self-Help’s leadership by Anni Chung, President and CEO, and the dedicated and selfless staff and volunteers that come into work every day to serve the seniors. They are our Heroes!

Today, please support our “Fund A Need” campaign so that Self-Help can continue to serve the vulnerable seniors in our community. The Board and staff thank each of you for your generous donation and support to Self-Help for the Elderly. We are hopeful that in 2021 a safe vaccine will be available and we are hopeful that our twelve senior centers will re-open to allow much needed social contact for our seniors. I thank you, stay safe and well.

Sincerely,

May L. Wong, Chair

Self-Help for the Elderly Honors COVID-19 Emergency Meals Delivery Drivers and Volunteers for Homebound Seniors

Self-Help for the Elderly celebrated the best volunteers in the City on June 25, 2020 with a Live Event to thank the individual and group volunteers who contributed their time and resources to support Self-Help’s COVID-19 Emergency Home-Delivered Meals program during the pandemic. This first live streaming celebration highlighted the extraordinary unity and teamwork among private, public and nonprofit sectors to care for the most vulnerable and dependent community.

Self-Help for the Elderly is especially grateful for the support of Mastercard Incorporated and Lyft, Inc. Thanks to the 37 committed Lyft drivers who provided services, Lyft helped lift up thousands of homebound seniors by delivering 45,000 meals since mid-April so the seniors could stay home and be safe. This purposeful effort was made possible by Mastercard Incorporated.

The COVID-19 emergency home-delivered meals program was vital because it provided meals to homebound seniors and people with disabilities who had no other means of obtaining food during the shelter-in-place order. Since March 17, 2020, Self-Help for the Elderly’s Nutrition Department delivered over 300,000 healthy meals to 4,000 unduplicated individuals during the COVID-19 pandemic. This is significant as the number indicated 70% of the total meals Self-Help served in the past fiscal year was achieved within 90 days during the stay-at-home order.

The COVID-19 emergency home-delivered meals program ended on June 26, 2020. After that, eligible individuals and older adults were registered for the Great Plates Delivered Program, a temporary food program that delivers three restaurant-prepared meals a day. In addition, Self-Help for the Elderly reopened six (6) senior centers in July to provide meals pick-up for seniors. The centers are: Geen Mun Activity Center, Lady Shaw Activity Center, Mendelsohn House Senior Center, Jackie Chan Activity Center, South Sunset Senior Center, and John King Community Center.
安老自助處表揚眾社區英雄於新冠狀病毒疫情期間的首一百天內遞送三十萬份午餐給家居避疫令的長者和弱勢社群

安老自助處在二零二零年六月二十五日舉行了現場直播的慶祝活動，表揚三藩市最好的義工們，感謝個人和團體的義工們為支持安老自助處於新冠狀病毒疫情期間遞送緊急午餐服務，無條件付出時間，人力及物力。這項直播慶祝活動突出了私營、公共和非牟利組織之間的團結與團隊合作精神，來照顧社區最脆弱和無助的社群。

安老自助處特別鳴謝萬事達卡公司和Lyft公司的支持。特別感謝Lyft接載服務公司的三十七位熱心的司機，自四月中以來，Lyft公司的司機們協助遞送了四萬五千份餐給數千位居家的長者，使長者們能留在家中並確保安全。這貼心的服務是由萬事達卡公司贊助。

新冠疫情疫情期间緊急遞送餐點計劃尤其重要，因為它使在居家避疫令期間不能以其他途徑獲取食物的居家長者和殘疾人士提供餐點。自二零二零年三月十七日起，安老自助處的營養部及康樂中心已在新冠狀病毒疫情期間的首一百天內為四千位人仕遞送了三十萬份健康餐點。

這是具有非常重要的意義，因為安老自助處在居家避疫令的最先九十日內，已提供了將近在過去的一個財政年度中百分之七十的餐點數量。

安老自助處的新冠狀病毒疫情期間緊急送餐計劃將於二零二零年六月二十六日結束。合資格的人仕和長者將申請參加Great Plates送餐計劃，該臨時計劃是為有需要及合資格的申請人仕每天提供三頓餐廳準備的餐點。此外，安老自助處營養部將在七月重新開放六間康樂中心，為長者提供自取餐點服務。六間康樂中心是華埠的建民康樂中心，邵逸夫爵士夫人康樂中心，市場街南區的美德康樂中心，列治文區的成龍康樂中心，日落區的日落康樂中心，和米慎台區的金約翰康樂中心。
Barry D Wong: I spent my entire career as a firefighter. And when I retired, I started traveling. This pandemic changed all that. I was no longer able to travel. So when I got the call asking for help, I was more than happy to help deliver meals to the people who could not get out. So, thank you Self-Help for giving me purpose during this pandemic.

Laura: We’re so happy to be able to help because there’s so much need right now with the pandemic and these guys are so organized that it makes us feel like we’re doing a little bit to make people lives better, everyone that we’ve dealt with has been really wonderful, love to volunteers...

David: We’re from the neighborhood. We’re helping our community.

Judy Lawrence: Being of service makes me happy. And in these frightening, chaotic times it feels good to do something concretely useful and give something back to elders who have given so much.

Thank You Notes from the Seniors

Here are several of the thank you notes that we’ve received from our seniors during this pandemic.
Seismic Safety Outreach Program

By: Emma Yicheng Wu

Starting 2015, Self-Help for the Elderly has been providing free seismic safety outreach workshops and presentations to the San Francisco community, educating them on emergency preparedness and effective ways for response and recovery.

In response to the COVID-19 health orders, all in person workshops and events were postponed and canceled starting mid-March. We immediately worked on shifting the presentations to virtual format by creating multilingual PowerPoints and e-handouts, preparing online sign up process, and promoting to the community. As of December 31, 2020, we conducted a total of 122 virtual workshops and presentations, 1,049 unduplicated individuals were educated through these trainings and workshops, and 970 individuals completed the whole virtual course training with us. In 2020, we presented a total of 1,357 disaster kits to each of our program graduates that completed the course trainings with us.
2020 Census Outreach Efforts to Hard-to-Count Community

By: Emma Yicheng Wu

Self-Help for the Elderly started to conduct on-the-ground and community based outreach campaigns to reach and educate the most vulnerable hard-to-count populations including ethnic minorities, immigrants, low income, monolingual or limited English Proficient, limited/no digital literacy, limited/no internet access, public benefits recipients, renters, SRP residents, unemployed, and veterans. We mobilized residents to participate in the 2020 Census by completing and submitting their Census questionnaires online, by mail, or through phone calls.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, we worked with local newspapers in publishing a series of Census reminders and articles featuring different community members’ viewpoint of the importance of Census. Staff conducted phone banking and provided telephonic assistance to over 2,500 Bay Area residents to provide Census information and assistance in completing the questionnaire, integrated Census educational content and materials into existing service delivery and client programming; conducted more than 20 virtual presentations on Census information; and debuted a social media campaign on the WeChat social network application to disseminate critical information on the 2020 Census and instructions on how to fill out the questionnaire. We also extended in-person strategies and direct services to reach the non-response, hard-to-count populations in addition to the digital and telephonic outreach efforts. From August to October, we tabled at the heaviest trafficked intersections in Chinatown on a weekly basis to provide the direct services to the Single Room Occupancy residents as well as other residents.
Greater Chinatown Corridor Manager Project Helped Sustain Small Businesses

By Emma Yicheng Wu

Funded by the Office of Economic and Workforce Development, Self-Help’s Greater Chinatown Corridor Manager Project provide customized technical assistance and business-focused outreach to over 990 small businesses in the Chinatown commercial corridor.

During the pandemic, the Corridor Manager at Self-Help adopted different remote outreach strategies, including but not limited to phone calls, text messaging, different social media platforms, and communication platforms, to provide technical assistance to small businesses. Our Greater Chinatown Corridor Manager and team responded to over 500 service requests and assisted more than sixty (60) Chinatown small businesses to apply for public and private grants and loans to support their operation.

In October, the Greater Chinatown Corridor Manager hosted a Business Resources Workshop at Portsmouth Square Clubhouse to inform and update the merchants on vital and current programs, resources and application processes. This workshop was conducted virtually and in person simultaneously.

Contact : (415) 699 -1350
Email: smallbiz@selfhelpelderly.org

Services being provided:

• Conduct daily business outreach by corridor visits, emails, phone calls, and WeChat messages.
• Conduct monthly and quarterly vacancy tracking to maintain an up-to-date business database.
• Facilitate community meetings and organize in language workshops that address the needs of the merchants on subjects from e-commerce, legal and business issues, variety of small business resources programs, and accessing capital and business planning.
• Act as a case manager to deliver direct services by providing technical assistance, sharing information about licenses and permits application process and requirements, engaging and instructing throughout the process, coordinating with the City Departments, offering language assistance, and developing online marketing strategies.
• Act as a business advisor to discuss all available resources, assist with application process, make appropriate referrals for businesses, and conduct individual consultation sessions with merchants for each specific inquiry.
• Seek ways for balancing compliance and continuous improvement during a business disruption, and work with merchants to develop plans to improve the operations and solve problems.
SHE Launched Virtual Activities for Seniors

By Ronald Liu

The public health crisis did not prevent Self-Help’s continued efforts to combat hunger, loneliness and self-isolation. On the one hand, SHE strived to eliminate hunger with home delivered meals; we also helped to reduce loneliness and self-isolation with the introduction of virtual activities.

The virtual activities were designed to keep our seniors and participants active, healthy and informed in their homes as in-person activities at SHE Activity Centers have been suspended to slow/stop the spread and exposure of COVID-19.

As the stay-at-home order became effective in March 2020, Self-Help’s Nutrition and Seniors Centers Department developed WeChat groups for each activity center to communicate with its seniors and the patrons on center activities, daily meal’s menu and important health announcement, services and programs. Printed flyers and educational materials are usually included with the home deliver meals that are delivered to the seniors’ front doors.

Thus, following the instructions from the educational pamphlet, many seniors learned to download and use the Zoom application on their digital devices. Then, the Nutrition Department established a Virtual Classes webpage (https://bit.ly/SHEvmtg) with daily activities schedule and simple instructions on downloading and using Zoom application.

Began in June 2020, the first virtual activity started with 10 participants. 30 days later, some popular activities have grown to 70 participants. We are thrilled to learn that our seniors continue to be happy, healthy and connected with us/loved ones through technology while staying at home. Some of the popular classes include fitness, exercise, healthier food choices, cell phone applications, and social.

Our online activities helped create meaningful friendships among participants and reduce the feeling of loneliness and being socially isolated. Aside from online activities, our participants are connected via WeChat Groups.

In-Kind Donations

Our deepest appreciation to all corporate and individual donors for the generous in-kind donations for our seniors and community. Our Nutrition Team’s home delivered meals program is operating with the support of volunteers and staff. The in-kind gifts helped us to provide our services safely.
